

Five Fun Facts You Probably Don't Know About Me

- The only reason I got my driver's license—at age 31—was because my then-fiancée/now-husband said he wouldn't marry me without one.
- I love to travel, which once led to my being diagnosed with an illness in three languages.
- If I had only two TV channels, they would be C-SPAN and Turner Classic Movies.
- I could live on olives and cheese.
- Before I die, I would like to climb at least one 14er—Colorado's tallest mountains.
